

CAP NEWSLETTER SUPPLEMENTAL – SEPTEMBER 2019

PRESIDENT'S CORNER

The CAP mission is to maintain and improve the value and safety of our neighborhood and homes and foster a sense of community. Thank you for your help and financial contributions.

REMINDER - General Meeting Announcement - Thursday, 27 September, 7:00 pm, Beach Pavilion
There will be an adult get-together following the general meeting. Bring a dish and/or drinks.

Here are a few highlights of what the meeting will cover:

- Nominations for Governor and VP
- Use of the beach by short-term renters and paying guests - options
- Treasurer's Report & Membership
- Website Update
- Social Calendar
- Draft CAP By-Laws Revisions
- 2019 Projects

REMINDER - Community Cleanup Program – AA County will deliver a dumpster near the beach by noon on 23 September (Monday) and will pick it up by 2:30 pm on 25 September (Wednesday). It is the community's responsibility to monitor the dumpster to ensure it is not overloaded and does not contain unacceptable material.

IMPORTANT: Placing unacceptable material in the dumpster can jeopardize the entire program! If someone places unacceptable materials in the dumpster, the community—in accordance with our contract with the County—must remove and dispose of the materials and report the issue to the County.

UNACCEPTABLE MATERIAL: Logs, tree trunks, paint, oil drums or tanks, tires, boats, trailers, refrigerators, air conditioners, and junk automobiles. Please use good sense and avoid jeopardizing the program.

Call for Committee Volunteers.
